

Psychologist – Full-Time & Part-Time

CBE Psychology and Consulting – Wollongong

Join a clinic where heart meets excellence.

At CBE Psychology and Consulting, we are a trauma-informed practice dedicated to creating emotionally safe, growth-oriented spaces for both our clients and our team. Guided by our core values of Accountability, Compassion, Professionalism, and Purpose, we strive to deliver exceptional psychological care while fostering a supportive, collaborative workplace.

We are currently seeking Registered Psychologists (General or Clinical) to join our team in either full-time or part-time capacities.

What We Offer

- A collaborative, values-driven team culture.
 - Flexibility in hours and caseload to suit your lifestyle.
 - Regular clinical supervision, peer consultation, and mentoring.
 - Professional development opportunities, including systemic advocacy.
 - A warm, inclusive, and supportive environment where your voice matters.
 - A workplace that values both professional excellence and personal wellbeing.

Who You Are

- AHPRA-registered Psychologist (General or Clinical).
 - Passionate about relational and trauma-informed practice.
 - Skilled in working with diverse presentations (e.g., trauma, family dynamics, mood disorders).
 - Emotionally intelligent, ethical, and committed to evidence-based care.
 - Interested in contributing to a team culture built on integrity, transparency, and mutual respect.

This Role is Especially Suited To Clinicians Who

- Want to feel genuinely supported in their work.
 - Value autonomy without isolation.
 - Are seeking a workplace that honours both client care and clinician wellbeing.

How to Apply

We welcome applications from both early career psychologists and experienced clinicians.
